MISSOULA--

An informal dance performance by Steve Paxton will be presented at 2 p.m. Friday, Feb. 7, in the Gallery of Visual Arts of Turner Hall at the University of Montana. The free public program also will include a reception for Paxton, a visiting artist from Bennington College, Bennington, Vt., who is best known for his work with various dance groups in New York City.

Friday's program is in conjunction with a dance-video workshop conducted this week by Paxton at the Gallery of Visual Arts for University of Montana dance students. The week-long program is sponsored by the UM Dance Division and the Gallery of Visual Arts. The workshop is from 2-5 p.m. daily, and all interested persons may attend.

Additional information about the workshop and Friday's presentation may be obtained by phoning Juliette Crump, head of the UM Dance Division.
